

Day care group strives for quality

COOLOOLA Family Day Care has reason to hold their heads high after a group of carers recently achieved their Cert 3 in child care.

The group provides care for children at their homes, which fosters a family environment.

They have the benefit of being with a small group of children in a home environment, which especially benefits children who don't have any siblings as they can mix with others.

The small group enables the children to learn from other children, while engaging in a more one-on-one experience.

Some of the carers have been in the industry for over 20 years, while others have just begun, and achieving the certificate cements the quality of care they strive to put in place.
