State honour for day care worker

SWAN View resident Christine George is WA's Child Care Worker of the Year for 2010.

The carer was one of five short-listed across Australia for the national gong, but was pipped at the post by South Australian Glen O'Brien.

Ms George said she was surprised to take out the State award from 1000 nominations.

She operates a family day care, catering for up to seven children from her home, sometimes working from 5am to 9pm.

The 2010 Australian Family Child Care Awards were announced at a gala luncheon in Sydney last month.
